

SCHOOLS SHOULD BE FOUR DAYS A WEEK.

Can you rephrase these facts and add devices to make them back up your point of view and sound even more persuasive?

70% of students said they feel more refreshed and ready to learn after a three-day weekend.

Research shows that attendance increase by 15% in schools that have adopted a four-day week schedule.

80% of teachers think a longer weekend provides more time for students to do extracurricular activities.

Students in schools with four-day weeks achieved the same educational outcomes as those in five-day schools.

Reports indicate a 10% decrease in tardiness among students attending schools with a four-day schedule.

Transport costs for schools with a four-day week decreased by 15%, allowing for more funds to be allocated to educational resources.

