

ADDING DEVICES

Writing persuasive sentences

We waited for the bus for ten minutes.

School should be four days a week.

ADJECTIVE

We waited for the bus for ten miserable minutes.

RHETORICAL QUESTION

Can you believe we waited for the bus for ten miserable minutes this morning?

TRIPLET

We waited for the bus for ten cold, wet and miserable minutes.

ALLITERATION

This morning, in the murky mist, we mutely waited for the bus for ten miserable minutes.

SIMIILE

This morning I waited for the bus as quietly as a frozen lake on an early winter morning.

